

UKRAINE FRONTLINE MEDIA PLATFORM

Ukraine Frontline Media Platform

Coordination media platform for foreign journalists in Ukraine frontline regions

Working in a foreign country, especially in frontline regions is a complex issue

- Local circumstances including poor on-site orientation, security and logistic issues
- Lack of well-established communication with local authorities and military
- Difficulties in searching and creating unique materials
- Lack of continuous information and coordination support

The Ukraine Frontline Media Platform team ensures a systematic work of foreign media representatives in marked regions.

WHAT WE DO

UKRAINE FRONTLINE
MEDIA PLATFORM

coordinate on the spot, assist in communication with military, authorities and fixers provide informational support to journalists in carrying out their professional activities in the specific area disseminate relevant news about key events in the frontline regions and the deoccupied territories assist with the establishing logistics routes in key cities of the regions for filming stories and reports

Collect and disseminate information from the frontline regions by topics:

---

current situation and key events in the frontline

---

---

cultural life of the regions under the martial law and humanitarian crisis

---

---

socio-humanitarian issues

---

---

international involvement: official visits, foreign aid, participation in the international legions

---

---

youth activities: social activism and involvement in the further development of the frontline regions

---

organizer:

NGO “Public Diplomacy Platform”

- worked with journalists, fixers, military, authorities, volunteers and volunteer battalions
- gave more than 250 comments to the world's biggest media such as CNN, BBC, Sky News, Al Jazeera English, Newsmax
- providing government institutions with advisory opinions on various matters of information policy of Ukraine

Supported by:

Helping international media to organize their work in the Ukraine frontline!

If you are planning journalistic activities in the frontline regions of Ukraine – contact UFMP at the contacts below:

 frontline.mediaplatform@gmail.com

 +38 (063) 384 60 72

OR fill out the form and we will contact you

In our social networks:

Facebook
LinkedIn

platforms for the original content, communication and networking

Telegram

coordination of activities and relevant information on the current situation

Twitter

key stories and important news